Rep. Labriola Achieves Perfect Voting, Attendance Record

State Representative David Labriola, R-131, achieved a perfect voting and attendance record in the state House of Representatives for the 2006 Legislative Session, according to records compiled by the clerk of the House of Representatives.

The 2006 Session was Rep. Labriola's fourth serving in the General Assembly, having first been elected in 2002. According to a statistical summary recently released by the General Assembly's House Clerks Office, Rep. Labriola is one of only 5 House lawmakers to record a 100 percent voting and attendance record during the 2003-2006 legislative sessions. There are 151 members in the state House of Representatives.

"I take my voting record and attendance seriously, as my constituents deserve no less," said Rep. Labriola. "I'm pleased to have been able to again post this accomplishment."

Labriola's 100 percent attendance and voting record also parallels his commitment to his committee work. He maintains an excellent attendance record as a member of the Legislature's Education Committee, Judiciary Committee and Regulations Review Committee.
